

2014 Trisaetum
Coast Range Estate
Pinot Noir

It has a very composed bouquet with very well-integrated new oak, lifting the crushed strawberry, redcurrant and oyster shell aromas. The palate is medium-bodied with a little more sappiness... good body, and depth with a gentle grip on the finish that shows as much black fruit as red. Give this 12-18 months in bottle before broaching.

Highly aromatic, spice-tinged red fruits, lavender and rhubarb on the nose; a smoky mineral nuance gains power as the wine opens up. Shows very good energy and lift in the mouth, offering juicy raspberry and bitter cherry flavors complicated by hints of spicecake and succulent herbs. Taut and focused on the clinging finish...
